

The order is rejected because the application was not set for hearing as required by E.D. Tenn. LBR 2014-1 for this request for nunc pro tunc entry to the date of the order for relief when the application was filed more than seven days after entry of the order for relief. An amended application with a compliant notice of hearing must be filed within five days.

The matter addressed in this rejected order and accompanying motion is unresolved for the reason(s) set forth above.
